

RESUME

Position: DIRECTOR, LEARNING INITIATIVE

Name: GLENNA (KAY) PULLEY

Education:

Texas Tech University
Texas A & M University – Commerce
The University of Texas at Tyler
Texas Woman’s University

Post-Graduate Studies

Texas Woman’s University
Texas Woman’s University

1975 M.A. Sociology
1973 B.S. Sociology

Professional Experience:

Spring 1987 – Present

Trinity Valley Community College

6/2005 – Present
9/1989 – 5/2005

Director of the Learning Initiative
Instructor (Full-Time): History, Sociology
Responsible for teaching US History 1301
1302, Texas History 2301, and served as History Honors Instructor for REACH Program. Received TVCC’s Excellence in Teaching Awards in 1991 and 2004 and recognized at NISOD’s International Conference on Teaching and Leadership
Excellence in 1992 and 2005. Named
Who’s Who Among America’s Teachers
1994, 1996, 1998, 2000, 2002, and 2004.
Received Henderson County Historical Commission’s Chairman’s Award for dedication in Educating and Promoting History in 2002. Elected Vice-President of TVCC Faculty Association 2004-2005 and 2005-2006 and selected as Faculty Administrative Intern 2004-2005. Initiated member of: Alpha Kappa Delta (Honors
Sociology), Phi Alpha Theta (Honors
History), and Delta Kappa Gamma (Teaching).

1/1987 – 8/1988	Instructor (Part-Time): Psychology, History, Government
1/1984 – 12/1986 8/1981 – 5/1983 12/1977 – 7/1981	Social Services for the elderly Junior High Teacher (Private School) Social Services and Public Relations Director for Facilities for Elderly
1/1977 – 5/1977	Graduate Teaching Assistant; Sociology Department – Texas Woman’s University
8/1975 – 3/ 1976	Intake, Evaluation, and Referral Specialist Comprehensive Alcohol Treatment Program Hurst, Texas
9/1973 – 7/1975	Graduate Research Assistant - Sociology Department – Texas Woman’s University (Directed research project on adolescent Studies)
1972 – 8/1973	Student Assistant - Sociology Department Texas Woman’s University (Assisted with research project on adolescent studies)