Step 4-

The screenshot shows the eBenefits website homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Home, About, Help, Contact, Facility Locator, and Feature List. A dropdown menu is open, showing "I am a". To the right of the navigation bar are "Social Media" icons and "Login" and "Register" buttons. Below the navigation bar is the eBenefits logo and the text "Gateway to Benefit Information". To the right of the logo are the Department of Veterans Affairs and the Department of Defense logos, along with the text "A Service of the Department of Veterans Affairs and the Department of Defense". Below the logo is a horizontal menu with four items: "apply for BENEFITS", "view my STATUS", "access my DOCUMENTS", and "browse benefits LINKS". The "apply for BENEFITS" item is circled in black, and a large black arrow points from the text "Step 4-" above to this item. To the right of the menu is a search icon and the word "search". Below the menu is a blue banner with the text "Register now to use all of the available features of eBenefits!". Below the banner is a large image of a hand writing on a chalkboard. The text "Claims Status Now Improved" is overlaid on the image. Below the image is the text "See just where your claim stands with the enhanced Claims Status Process bar and detailed status descriptions." and a blue button that says "Register Today! >". To the right of the image is a section titled "Most Popular Features" with a list of features: "Download VA Letters", "Transfer Post-9/11 Education Benefits", "Update Direct Deposit and Contact Information", and "VA Home Loan Certificate of Eligibility". Below the list is a blue button that says "View All Features". Below the "Claims Status Now Improved" section is a section titled "How Can eBenefits Assist Me?" with two buttons: "I am a Veteran" and "I Am a Service". At the bottom right is a dark blue box with the Veterans Affairs logo and the text "Veterans Affairs DeptVetAffairs". Below this is the text "Looking for information on post-traumatic stress? Check out VA's National Center for PTSD http://t.co/F6UOhSyQ".

The screenshot shows the eBenefits website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Home, About, Help, Contact, Facility Locator, and Feature List. The main header includes the eBenefits logo, the Department of Veterans Affairs and Department of Defense seal, and buttons for Login and Register. Below the header is a secondary navigation bar with tabs for 'apply for BENEFITS', 'view my STATUS', 'access my DOCUMENTS', and 'browse benefits LINKS'. The main content area is titled 'Apply for Benefits' and contains a section for logging in or registering. A 'Log in or Register for eBenefits' box includes a 'Log in' button and a 'Register' button. Below this is a section titled 'Examples of Available Benefits' with three cards: 'Apply for Veterans Benefits', 'Apply for or Modify Your Dependency Benefits', and 'VA Home Loan Certificate of Eligibility'. The 'Apply for Veterans Benefits' card is circled in black, and a large black arrow points to it from the bottom left. To the right of the main content are two sidebars: 'Be Sure To Register' with a 'Register Now' button, and 'Have Your Say'.
