

PARKING AND TRAFFIC

All vehicles regularly driven on campus by both students and faculty must bear a current parking permit and must be parked in authorized areas. It is the responsibility of anyone registering a vehicle for campus use to become familiar with the Traffic Rules and Regulations. A copy of these may be obtained from the office of the Campus Police.

HOUSING

Trinity Valley Community College provides housing on the Henderson County Campus for 350 students. Northeast and Northwest Halls are men's dormitories. South and West Halls are reserved for women. Each dormitory is conveniently located near classrooms, library, cafeteria, student center, and access to laundry facilities.

All dormitory rooms are equipped with furnishings for two persons, basic cable service, heating and air-conditioning. Rooms are on a suite basis with semi-private bathrooms. Students are required to bring bed linens, pillows, and towels.

The lounge/reception area in each building contains color television, and soft drink machines.

LEARNING RESOURCE CENTER

Trinity Valley Community College has four Learning Resource Centers. The location for these centers are: on the first floor of the Ginger Murchison Learning Resource Center on the Athens campus, in the Anderson Building on the Palestine campus, in the M.L. Risinger Learning Resource Center on the Terrell Campus, and in the Administration Building on the Health Science Center Campus.

Generally, all campuses have study areas, circulating books, reference books, reserve materials, study carrels, coin-operated copy machines, newspapers, computers, periodicals, and journals, and access to online databases. Books are classified by the Library of Congress Classification system and housed in open stacks. Online catalogs are available in each Learning Resource Center for searching the collection. In addition, remote access to the library catalog and online databases. For orientation, training, and information about online services, see library staff. Assistance is available to groups or individuals needing help with any of the available services.

The hours of operation are posted; a current identification card is required for transactions. Books, microfilm, computers, and other materials are available for academic research and class assignments. All provided resources are designed for academic use by the college student.
