

RESUME

Name: Dr. W. K. Sam Hurley, A. S. L. A.

Position: Director of TDCJ Instructional Programs

Education:

University of Texas, Tyler, TX	1995 Teacher Certification: Biology
Texas A & M University-Commerce, TX	1994 EdD. Higher Education
University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, AR	1982 M.S. Ornamental Horticulture
Arkansas State University, Jonesboro, AR	1978 B.S. Plant Science
Harding Academy, Memphis, TN	1973 High School Diploma

Professional Experience:

July, 1982-Present	Trinity Valley Community College, Athens, TX
9/01-Present	Director of Correctional Education, responsible for all 18 workforce education programs, staff and coordination of academic classes at four TDCJ Units, liaison for T. V. C. C. and TDCJ/Windham.
1/99-08/01	Coordinator of TDCJ Instructional Programs, responsible for direct communication and supervision of work force staff and academic program advisement.
9/84-12/98	Department Head, Horticulture, responsible for department instruction, recruitment and facility usage; Biology instructor, biology lecture and lab instruction.
7/82-8/84	Horticulture Instructor, TDCJ Campus, horticulture instruction within the TDCJ.
January, 1982-May, 1982	Arkansas State University, Jonesboro, AR Adjunct Professor-Plant Science, taught university horticulture and forestry courses.
August, 1978-1981	University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, AR Graduate Research Assistant, Department of Horticulture and Forestry, responsible for U. of A.

September, 1973-July, 1978

1/78-7/78

9/73-12/77

ornamental horticulture research projects and pursuit of Master's Degree.

Arkansas State University, Jonesboro, AR

Research Assistant and Graduate Student, responsible for plant growth regulator research program and pursuit of graduate hours in agriculture.

Undergraduate student, College of Agriculture, pursuit of Bachelor of Science degree in plant science.