

Resume

Position: Director of Distance Learning and Instructional Technology

Name: Luther T. (Terry) Spurlock

Education:

Texas A & M, Commerce, Texas	1989	Ed.D. Secondary and Higher Education
Sam Houston State University Huntsville, Texas	1973	M.A. Political Science
	1971	B.A.T. History

Professional Experience

September, 1973 – Present
09/2002 – Present

Trinity Valley Community College, Athens, Texas
Director of Distance Learning and Instructional Technology responsible for the training, supervision, evaluation, remediation of faculty in the creation and delivery of distance learning courses and for the preparation and monitoring of the distance learning budget.

09/1990 - present

Chair, Social Science Division responsible for the supervision, evaluation, remediation and counseling of faculty and for the preparation and monitoring of the division's budget.

09/1993-08/2002

Coordinator, Distance Learning responsible for reviewing, evaluating, adding or deleting telecourses. Responsible for the recruiting, training, evaluating and remediation of faculty teaching telecourses. Prepare and monitor budget for telecourses.

09/73-08/2002

Instructor; teach American and Texas survey government courses,

1991-1993

Adjunct Professor; University of Texas, Tyler. Taught senior course on legislative procedure. Stephen F. Austin State University. Taught legislative procedure and constitutional law.

09/1971-05/1973

Teaching Assistant Sam Houston State University, Government Department, Taught two introductory government courses each semester.

08/1963-07/1967

United States Air Force. Missile Electrical Specialist, responsible for the maintenance of the Titan II ICBM. Honorable discharge.