

Fine Arts Division Meeting Minutes July 10, 2006

A meeting of the Fine Arts Division was held on Monday, July 10, at 1:30 p.m. in room A106 of the Gibbs Academic Building. Division members attending the meeting were Kelly Driskell, Bill Simpson, Danny Teague, and Marylyn Wright. Also in attendance was Jeremy McMillen, Dean of Planning & Institutional Effectiveness. The meeting was chaired by Ray Williams.

Dean McMillen shared the recommendations received from the SACS Off-Site Review Committee. Each of the recommendations was discussed with special attention given to recommendation 3.4.1 dealing with learning outcomes measurement and 3.5.1 dealing with the assessment of general education.

Dean McMillen discussed the status of the LEAPs process and distributed copies of the 2005-2006 LEAPs to each Fine Arts Program Director. The focus of the discussion was on the completion of the 2005-2006 LEAPs through providing appropriate assessment of the LEAPs and outlining changes that had been made as a result of that assessment. Dean McMillen responded to the questions and comments of the program directors concerning the LEAPs process in general as well as to their specific LEAPs.

Dean McMillen emphasized the importance of having LEAPs for the 2006-2007 academic year submitted by the July 15th deadline.

The meeting adjourned at 2:25 p.m.
