

2020 American Royal Livestock Show Kansas City, MO

Trinity Valley Community College competed in the 2020 American Royal Livestock Show in Kansas City, MO. The show was judged by Brigham Stewart who is a sixth generation stockman from Washington, KS. Stewart was born and raised on his family operation, Mid-Continent farms. Stewart graduated from Kansas State University where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Animal Sciences and Industry. The seven members of the TVCC Beef Cattle Show Team were involved in the Open Charolais Cattle division of the show on October 24th.

“Located in the center of the United States and having a great reputation, the American Royal Livestock Show brought in a very large number of some of the best cattle in the country. The TVCC show team did a very good job with our cattle and I received several very nice compliments on the character, work ethic and skills of our members from other breeders who had not seen our team before.” – Marc Robinson, TVCC Ag and Ranch Management Instructor
