

2021 Cattleman's Congress Oklahoma City, OK

Trinity Valley Community College competed in the 2021 Cattleman's Congress Livestock Show in Oklahoma City, OK. The Judge was Mitch Thomas, Raymondville, Texas. This show was the replacement show for the Denver, CO show that was cancelled, as well as the National Charolais Show that was going to be held at Fort Worth, but cancelled. The six members of the TVCC Beef Cattle Show Team were involved in the Open Charolais Cattle division of the show on January 10th show.

“The Cattleman's Congress had a record number of cattle entries for their show, which was extremely well ran, especially for the short amount of time they had to organize this national event after the cancellation of the Denver Stock Show. The TVCC show team members all did an outstanding job clipping, fitting, and showing our cattle.” – Marc Robinson, TVCC Ag and Ranch Management Instructor
