Meet the Instructor

Austin Irigo is a dedicated educator with nearly 30 years of teaching experience. He has taught core subjects—math, reading, science, and social studies—to support students in earning their GED. With over 25 years of experience teaching Spanish, Austin brings both passion and expertise to language instruction. His teaching career spans a variety of settings, including correctional facilities, public schools, community colleges, and his local church, where he also teaches English as a Second Language (ESL). Austin is committed to helping students grow academically and personally, empowering them to contribute meaningfully to their communities.
